It's time for another outstanding evening of celebrating everything our partnership with lawmakers has given the State of Indiana: quality places that attract top talent, vibrant arts and culture hubs, unique towns that epitomize what it means to be a Hoosier, and the flexibility to address our challenges.

Presented by Duke Energy, the Aim Legislative Dinner will include featured remarks from renowned author and quality of place guru Peter Kageyama. Listening to Peter talk about loving our cities will inspire you and legislators alike. No one will leave the dinner lacking enthusiasm for what we can achieve together in advancing our cities, towns and state.

SEATING & ATTIRE

Aim members and legislators will be sat according to their legislative district. Business attire recommended.
